- WET Rebate Debate 10

As Paul Evans, the Winemakers' Federation of Australia (WFA) chief executive explains, "we want the rebate kept for those wine businesses who support regional communities". "We believe we've got the overwhelming support of the Australian wine industry on this," Evans said. "We want to keep the rebate, but obviously eligibility needs to be tightened up."

■ winemaking

Metropolitan winemaking46

There are some unfamiliar sweet, ferment smells wafting from commercial city buildings at the moment as vintage arrives in the city. Passers-by probably wouldn't give a second-thought to smell, and might not believe you if you told them it was thanks to a winemaker in action.
