

REGULAR FEATURES

- 8 WINE AUSTRALIA (Stuart Barclay): Australia Day Tastings indicate a bright future for Australian wine in the UK and Ireland
- 9 WFA (Tony Battaglene): Harmonisation on the table at European Union talks
- 11 ASVO (Mardi Longbottom): Excitement ahead of the Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference
- 12 KEY FILES (TONY KEYS): American snakes and ladders - Part 1: China may be all the rage but reward for effort also awaits in the US

WINEMAKING

- 21 CATHY HOWARD: What piece of winery equipment can't you live without – could it be a lees crossflow filter?

- 28 A novel electrochemical approach for rapid analysis of white grape polyphenols and monitoring of pre-fermentative operations
- 32 Berry shrivel significantly alters Shiraz grape and wine composition
- 36 AWRI REPORT: In vino veritas – investigating technologies to fight wine fraud

WINE TASTING

- 75 Cool climate Shiraz

RESEARCH &amp; DEVELOPMENT

- 18 Highlights of the last 12 months in wine R&D

VITICULTURE

- 39 Vineyard terroir – is there a link with soil microbiology?
- 42 GEOFF KEW: Describing your soil
- 44 TONY HOARE: Grapevine scale – sucking the profits from vineyards

- 46 Vineyard nitrogen management and must and wine composition
- 51 Impact of grape cluster zone defoliation, grape must clarification and yeast strain on TDN potential in cool climate wines
- 55 ALTERNATIVE VARIETIES: Assyrtiko

BUSINESS &amp; MARKETING

- 57 Innovations in wine labelling and packaging
- 59 The 9(+1) talking points about the Australian wine retail sector
- 62 World wine trade in bulk grows, although with great differences

- 67 Product innovation and authenticity: The case of wine
- 70 The Trans Pacific Partnership – which wine-producing country will be the biggest winner?