

WINE & VITICULTURE JOURNAL

40

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION COLUMNS

- 12 WFA (Damien Griffante): Shifting the boundaries: why we must fight to keep Prosecco
- 14 ASVO (Anthony Robinson): ASVO seminar is going regional
- 15 WINE AUSTRALIA (Rachel Triggs): New regulations add further protection for Australian wine businesses

WINEMAKING

- 17 ERIKA SYZMANSKI: Why so little new research about juice handling?
- 22 Hyperspectral imaging of botrytis in grapes
- 26 Assessing the use of visible and near infrared spectroscopy to rapidly evaluate the health status of grapes entering wineries
- 30 Winemaking supplements: what's inside?
- 36 AWRI REPORT: Brettanomyces yeasts still have potential to give wine producers a headache

VITICULTURE

- 40 Grapevine row orientation: a factor in microclimate, physiology, growth and yield
- 47 Advances and requirements for machine learning and artificial intelligence applications in viticulture
- 53 Artificial intelligence to measure Australia's national vineyard
- 55 ALTERNATIVE VARIETIES: Gruener Veltliner

BUSINESS & MARKETING

- 57 Values rise as competition for Australian vineyards and wine assets intensifies
- 59 The viticultural and marketing road to alternative varieties Part 1: Varietal selection and viticulture
- 61 The challenge for Wilyabrup wineries
- 64 How Australian wine benefits from FTAs
- 67 The organisation, culture and values of family wine businesses: a comparative analysis between Australia, Germany and Italy

TASTING

- 73 $20+ Cabernet Sauvignon