

WINE & VITICULTURE JOURNAL

14

28

42

65

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION COLUMNS

- 12 ASVO (Anthony Robinson): ASVO Adelaide seminar – Fermentation: Converting Research to Reality
- 14 WINE AUSTRALIA (Andreas Clark): Redoubling our efforts in the US market

WINEMAKING

- 15 ERIKA SYZMANSKI: Is the popularity of European and American oak species for wine barrels justified?
- 22 Malolactic fermentation in barrel or steel tanks – what are the phenolic and sensorial differences?
- 28 Truly replicating a barrel requires oak and oxygen
- 32 Practical measurement of total SO<sub>2</sub> in wine
- 39 AWRI REPORT: Vintage 2018 – observations from the AWRI helpdesk

VITICULTURE

- 42 Improving pest surveillance in vineyards through drones, hyperspectral and spatial data
- 54 Taking yield forecasting into the digital age
- 56 Australian vineyards opt for new digital and wireless irrigation systems
- 62 Advances in nursery-vineyard management and healthy and disease-resistant plants
- 65 ALTERNATIVE VARIETIES: Pinot Blanc

BUSINESS & MARKETING

- 67 MARK O'CALLAGHAN: Data, information, knowledge and the getting of wisdom in wine businesses
- 71 The danger of relying on anecdotal information in China
- 73 Red varieties lead Australia's export growth
- 74 How can a wine brand compensate for limited distribution?
- 77 TONY HOARE: The viticultural and marketing road to alternative varieties Part 2: The marketing and making