August 2014: Issue 607

Contents

features

- 30 GWRDC
- 57 Trellising
- 61 Vineyard machinery
- 87 Wine storage
- 98 Bottling and labelling
- 103 Bulk export

news

- 7 Opportunities in a new climate special report
- 19 Movers and Shakers
- 20 My View Sparkling reds have come of age
- 21 How to decide when to sell your wine business
- 23 Roundtable Getting down to barrel business
- 28 Regional Roundup New Zealand's South Island

grapegrowing

- 34 Leaching efficiency and its impact on the sustainability of irrigation
- 42 ADAMA ready for business Down Under
- 44 How-to manual for assessing the health of your vineyard
- 47 New standard in vine planting material is a big step forward
- 57 Ocloc innovation wins innovation grant

- 61 Ben puts his Best foot forward at harvest
- 63 Online map to boost phylloxera compliance
- 64 Kiwi clan goes for efficiency at harvest

winemaking

- 70 Chitosan and Brett understanding your lab results and sub-lethal populations
- 74 What a bottler of an opportunity for the little guys
- 75 The beauty of self destruction: yeast autolysis in sparkling wines
- 78 Wines and vines and a love for swine
- 79 WA winemakers get taste of cold soak technique
- 82 It seemed like a Valley good idea at the time
- 87 When too much oak is too much oak
- 91 Sanitation the pros and cons of the good and the bad in barrels

sales and marketing

- 98 Which label really is worth 1000 words?
- 102 Australia has 'led the industry' in New World wine label design
- 105 Survey says screwcap is top choice business & technology

106 The good, the bad and the casual cover

Vintage at Devil's Lair in Western Australia's Margaret River region captured all the colour of the season with this picture, which was submitted as part of our 2014 vintage photo competition.

regulars

- 6 What's online
- 108 Looking forward
- 109 Advertiser index
- 110 Marketplace classifieds