

features

- 19 WGGA – The United Grower
- 44 Vine management
- 52 Mildew control
- 55 Fertilisers and nutrition
- 56 Irrigation
- 80 Filtration, pumps and tanks
- 87 Packaging and bottling

news

- 5 On the grapevine
- 6 My view: Suppliers show of strength, WISA's Matthew Moate
- 7 Roundtable: Alternative variety lessons It's all about what will grow best in your backyard
- 12 Regional roundup: We turn the spotlight to Victoria
- 14 Movers and shakers
- 16 Engagement: Not all events are equal

grapegrowing

- 24 Wind breaks and ground cover the key to beneficial wasps
- 28 Cabernet fruit maturity and hang time
- 30 Sauvignon Blanc aromatic profile: the sweet spot from a vineyard perspective
- 39 Sustainability program on offer to all Australian growers

- 44 Kym Anderson: Professor, author and industry supporter
- 46 Winegrowers welcome new viticulturist: New viticulture development officer for NSW
- 48 Should the Wine Grapes Industry Act be amended?
- 56 Scheduling for Regulated Deficit Irrigation

winemaking

- 58 As simple as it gets: Making wine with a bucket, a hydrometer and a sieve
- 64 Young gun: 'Jess the mess'
- 66 Ask the AWRI
- 68 Mastering malolactic fermentation
- 74 The microbial origins of key wine aromas: Volatile fatty acids and sulfurous compounds
- 78 Reverse racking and clarification
- 80 Understanding filterability index: An overview and some new insights

sales & marketing

- 87 The real treasure is in the people

business & technology

- 90 Get the interview process right

39

19

64

cover

Tennille Chalmers and Bart van Olphen surrounded by experiments. Photo courtesy of Sunraysia Daily www.sunrasyiadaily.com.au. Full story Page 58.

regulars

- 5 What's online
- 92 Looking back
- 93 Advertiser index
- 94 Marketplace classifieds