

regulars

- 5 on the grapevine
- 8 my view
- 23 grapegrowing
- 55 winemaking
- 86 australian wine business
- 94 export market snapshot
- 98 marketplace classifieds

news

- 9 Variety spice of life
- 11 Climate action is a business question
- 13 Great Shiraz Challenge and Victorian Wine Show results
- 15 Leaders strive for clean green image

adelaide hills and mclaren vale

- 19 Wine regions so close, so different
- 20 Young and green
- 22 'Tis the season for popping corks

grapegrowing

- 23 Diversification fit for a drought
- 24 Downy mildew spreads across regions
- 27 New technology for rapid assessment of grape quality, maturity
- 30 Potential pest and natural enemy responses under climate change
- 34 Move south or plant higher: Climate change report

safety and handling

- 42 drumMuster collection sites prepare for end of season

tractors and vineyard machinery

- 45 The tractor factor

winemaking

- 55 Study reveals closure impact on wine styles
- 61 Why we should be looking at energy management
- 63 Winemaking can join low carbon revolution
- 65 Can Australia overcome a harsh reality in US
- 68 Sensory testing at work in winery

oaks and barrels

- 73 A world-first in McLaren Vale
- 74 Recent advances in barrel cleaning technology

analytical services

- 80 A new standard in tartrate stability testing

australian wine business

- 86 Australia's First Families of Wine
- 88 Roundtable: Are we ready for climate change challenge
- 92 Latest figures on variety trends

cover: Yealands Estate, in New Zealand, has employed these babydoll sheep to help them improve their carbon friendly status and reduce the need for mowers. See Page 17 to read more. Photo by Jim Tannock at photos@jimtannock.co.nz