

regulars

- 5 on the grapevine
- 6 my view
- 18 grapegrowing
- 43 winemaking
- 63 australian wine business
- 82 export market snapshot
- 85 marketplace classifieds

special focus: small-medium enterprises

news

- 6 Vintage in the Vale rewrites UK myths
- 7 Chinese embrace Australian wine and lifestyle
- 10 Is carbon pricing an opportunity in disguise
- 12 Mines vs Vines in Hunter and Margaret River
- 13 Wine industry farewells wine enthusiast
- 16 Regional roundup: South Australia

grapegrowing

- 18 Diversification delivers life beyond grapes
- 20 The flavour is in the shade
- 22 Increasing vineyard profits and sustainability
- 28 Carbohydrate reserves to help predict yields post-harvest care and pruning

- 34 Experts share top tips for post harvest
- 36 Spur pruning system for winter
- 38 Electric pruners have growers talking frost

- 40 Managing a severe frost event

winemaking

- 43 Non-traditional strategies to help get wine into US
- 45 Finding the right sweet spot
- 49 Barrels of inspiration from tour de France
- 51 Wine industry donates tonnes of relief
- 53 Turning waste into valuable 'green' commodity
- 56 Marketing mystique unveiled at conference
- 58 Label Q&A: Wagtail stands out from the flock automating the winery

- 59 Wine industry turning to solar for savings
- 60 Rathbone Wines toast business reliability
- 62 Cheaper access to technical know-how

australian wine business

- 63 All aboard the Twitter train
- 65 Appointments and Accolades
- 66 Port: The Twitter universe... for twits and tweets
- 67 Reddaway: It adds up to have my birthday bus visit
- 68 Warning: Label changes 'inevitable'
- 69 Conference sheds light on latest innovations

I.T. in the wine industry

- 71 Web designer unveils secret to online sales

Cover: Though late and heavily affected by disease pressures in some inland regions, the premium red harvest began flowing into wineries over April/May. Photo taken by Elena Maggi.