

Contents

features

- 20 WGGA news
- 50 Pests and diseases
- 57 Ask the AWRI
- 59 Vineyard machinery
- 64 Irrigation
- 81 Oak alternatives
- 90 Bottling and packaging
- 98 Education and training

news

- 6 My View: Innovate or pay the price
- 7 Softer dollar puts some promise in land values
- 10 Full press on wine tax
- 12 Wake up Canberra we need you
- 15 WFA goes for broke
- 16 Regional Roundup: Canberra
- 18: Wine industry welcomes weaker dollar

grapegrowing

- 26 At Warburn Estate it never rains – then it pours
- 30 Look out for grapevine red blotch-associated virus
- 36 NZ growers make hay while drought ravages

- 40 Downy mildew - still some sting in the tail of strobilurins
- 50 Organic control options a dark future for light brown apple moth
- 54 New twists in an old story

winemaking

- 66 Riverina winery's history of success
- 70 Trials turn up new strategies for softening the kick in wine
- 74 Why take a punt on a year's hard work
- 80 New products and services

sales & marketing

- 88 Australian on-premise wine: what influences wine buying decisions?
- 90 Relationships key to China success
- 92 Now it's carbon zero closures
- 94 Label Q&A: Nina Chalmers

business & technology

- 96 Going in the right direction for Geographical Indicators
- 98 Learning by doing, tasting and travelling
- 100 Export snapshot

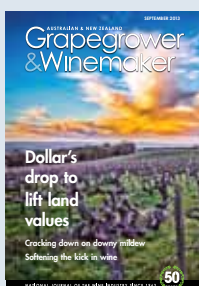

16

20

59

cover

This spectacular shot of sunrise over Patritti's Blewitt Springs Shiraz vineyard is courtesy of Patritti Wines winemaker Ben Heide.

regulars

- 5 on the grapevine
- 26 grapegrowing
- 66 winemaking
- 100 export snapshot
- 101 looking forward
- 102 marketplace classifieds