

REGULAR FEATURES

- 8 OPINION (Kym Ludvigsen): Vine improvement in Australia at a crossroad
- 12 WINE AUSTRALIA (James Gosper): Good response to new market programs structure
- 13 WFA (Tony Battaglene): Coordinated approach to trade brings results
- 14 ASVO (Paul Petrie): New editor for the 'yellow journal'
- 15 KEY FILES: Wine writers - past, present and future
- 18 RICHARD SMART: China - emerging market or competitor?
- 59 TONY HOARE: Ethical and free trade branding for wine: harvesting the benefits

WINEMAKING

- 22 AWRI REPORT: Managing eucalyptus aromas
- 28 When size matters: large format oak - why use it?
- 34 Precision management technologies prove their value in selective harvesting in Australia's major production regions
- 38 A snapshot of processing trends in Australia's larger wineries

PROFILE

- 77 Chemistry is right for Jordan

REGIONAL REPORT

- 79 Yarra Valley, Victoria

VITICULTURE

- 44 Hot and getting hotter - how will a warming climate affect warm climate viticulture?

- 49 Grapevine propagation best practices - Part 2
- 52 Genomics: the key to safeguarding sustainable winegrape production
- 56 Vineyard scoops annual trophy pool
- 61 Regional profiling: the McLaren Vale experience
- 64 Negro Amaro - a worthy alternative red in the right homoclimate

BUSINESS &amp; MARKETING

- 66 Profile of small exporters
- 68 To adapt or not to adapt...that is the China question

- 73 The National Water Initiative - financial implications for growers
- 74 US consumers nearing closure over the influence of seals in wine purchasing decisions

VARIETAL REPORT

- 86 Top Touriga producers tell all