

WINE & VITICULTURE JOURNAL

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION COLUMNS

- 8 AGW (Lee McLean): As COVID-19 changes everything, strong advocacy is more important than ever
- 9 WINE AUSTRALIA (Andreas Clark): The Australian wine industry adapts to multiple challenges
- 9 ASVO (Brooke Howell): Reflecting on 40 years in operation

WINEMAKING

- 16 ERIKA SZYMANSKI: Sulfur dioxide, aroma, and the law of unintended consequences
- 20 Flotation – achieving success
- 23 RACHEL GORE: SOS: sustain, optimise, save - options for reducing the use of refrigeration without compromising wine quality
- 26 Advances in artificial intelligence to assess smoke contamination in grapevines and taint in wines due to increased bushfire events
- 30 AWRI REPORT: Enhancing tropical fruit flavour in Chardonnay and Shiraz through foliar nutrient sprays

VITICULTURE

- 36 To thin or not to thin?
- 46 Effect of frost injury on Pinot Noir
- 52 Alternative varieties for the Australian wine industry to help winegrape producers in a changing environment and market
- 58 ALTERNATIVE VARIETIES: Arinto

BUSINESS & MARKETING

- 60 Australian wineries adapt to COVID-19 restrictions
- 61 COVID-19 and global beverage markets: impacts on Australian wine industry
- 67 The impact of COVID-19 on domestic wine sales... the story so far
- 69 Exploring media options to reach wine buyers in China

SPECIAL FEATURE

- 70 Single vineyard Chardonnay – an AUS v US comparison