

The January issue of the Grapegrower & Winemaker features Tasmanian organic grower and winemaker Cynthea Semmens.

REGULARS

- 7 Winetitles Insights
- 8 What's online
- 8 In this issue
- 44 Ask the AWRI
- 83 Producer profile: Cynthea Semmens
- 85 Looking back
- 85 Calendar
- 86 Marketplace classifieds

WINEMAKING

- 46 FEATURE Coinoculation of yeast and bacteria
- 54 FEATURE Low carbon wine: a marketing edge to drive the pivot away from China?
- 58 Smoke analysis at the AWRI: a testing year
- 62 Young Gun: Monica Gray
- 66 Behind the Top Drops: Mount Mary Quintet

BUSINESS & TECHNOLOGY

- 72 Heavy vehicle use in wine examined
- 75 Study reveals drop in business confidence, but spike in innovation among SA wine businesses

PACKWINE FORUM & EXPO

- 77 PACKWINE Design Awards open for entries

NEWS

- 10 Industry braces for China tariff impact
- 12 Emerging wine markets program a boost for SA wine industry
- 13 Constellation Brands NZ enters agreement with Giesen Group to sell its Riverlands winery
- 14 Riverina grower association challenges addressed
- 15 International briefs
- 16 MY VIEW Do we want to save the China wine market?

GRAPEGROWING

- 18 FEATURE Out of this world precision: AI and IoT in the vineyard
- 22 FEATURE What are the most important features of your vineyard to map?
- 28 What's your biosecurity bubble?
- 32 FEATURE Organic viticulture: Green is the new black
- 38 Shiraz Uncorked: The Australian way

SALES & MARKETING

- 78 Coronavirus boosts winery camaraderie
- 79 'Vine and Shine Trail' puts Queensland winemakers on the map
- 80 Australian wineries embrace digital currency

